Two Sisters of Robert Lindsey Die in Accident

Son-in-Law and Daughter of One Also Fatally Injured

Two sisters of Robert Lindsey of Mt. Vernon, a former resident of this city, were killed in an auto-truck crash on U. S. 66 near Atlanta late Saturday. A son-in-law and daughter of one of the sisters were fatally injured in the same crash. The son-in-law died Sunday evening and his wife died today at Lincoln Memorial hospital.

Dead are the sisters, Mrs. Ethel Kirk, 64, and Mrs. Harry Alexander, 62, both of Springfield; Elmer L. Thomason, 37, also of Springfield, and his wife, Genevieve. Another woman, Mrs. Dorothy Barnett, is in critical condition.

According to reports the driver of the truck, Harold E. Nelson of Cummings, Ga., who escaped injury, was charged with speeding. State Policemen Joe Miller and Robert McKay said that Nelson told them he was driving south with a load of meat and that the trailer truck slipped off the pavement, went out of control, jackknifed and overturned.

The tractor landed in the ditch and the trailer overturned on its side across the highway.

Nelson was unable to get out of the cab and place flares before the Thomason car collided with the trailer.

Mrs. Kirk is survived by her husband, Arthur; her mother, Mrs. Margaret Lindsey, Springfield; two sons, Charles, Springfield and Robert, San Diego, Calif.; two brothers, Robert Lindsey, Mt. Vernon, and James Lindsey, Canton, Ohio, and three sisters, Miss Beulah Lindsey, Miss Marion Lindsey and Mrs. LaVon Davis, all of Springfield. She is also survived by five grandchildren.

Mrs. Alexander is survived by her husband, Harry; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Wright and Mrs. Inez McShane, all of Springfield, four grandchildren and also her two brothers and three sisters. She was the mother also of Mrs. Thomason.

Mr. Thomason was a veteran of World War II and was employed in Springfield. The Thomasons are survived by a daughter, Michaela Gail at home. He also is survived by his mother of Lowell, North Carolina, and six sisters.

The bodies of all four victims were taken to Bisch Memorial home in Springfield.

Russia Calls for Big Four Declaration of 'Hands Off' Mid-East

Van Doren Celebrates 31st Birthday, Ups His TV Winnings to $138,000

NEW YORK (UP) — Charles Van Doren celebrates his birthday today with 31 candles on his cake and $138,000 in TV winnings.

Van Doren, the biggest winner on a single TV quiz show, outclassed two opponents on NBC-TV's "Twenty One" Monday night to add $16,000 to his mounting pile. On 10 previous appearances on the program, Van Doren had pyramided his winnings to $122,000.

The slim, Columbia College instructor will return next Monday to tell whether he will go for an even bigger boodle. Under the rules of the TV show, Van Doren can continue as long as he feels he can knock off challengers.

Whips Two Challengers

Monday night, Van Doren whipped John Kieran Jr., son of the former sportswriter and "Information Please" expert, and Hall Griffith, a writer and public affairs consultant from Forest Hills, N.Y.

Young Kieran, a graduate of Yale and Harvard Law School whose home is Trumbull, Conn., and Griffith, who holds a Ph. D. from Princeton, were the 11th and 12th contestants defeated by Van Doren.

Van Doren, who holds degrees from St. John's of Annapolis and Columbia, hammered through a series of queries on George Washington, show music, bodies of water and queens after croaking to Emcee Jack Barry: "You know me, Jack, I gotta go on."

Hires Tax Expert

Van Doren, son of Pulitzer Prize poet Mark Van Doren, has a tax expert working on his future contributions to internal revenue. He estimated that he may keep about $40,000 of his present earnings if forced to declare it as a single year's income.

However, since part of his earnings were made last year on the TV show, a test case may result from his tax problem. The question is whether the government will permit Van Doren to spread his quiz winnings over a two-year span.

Van Doren's only competitor for top TV winnings is 11-year-old stock expert Leonard Ross, a Tujunga, Calif., youngster who has piled up $164,000 on two shows—"The Big Surprise" and "The $64,000 Challenge." Van Doren could top that total next week.

U. S. Denounces Hands Off Doctrine Proposed by Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. officials today denounced Russia's new "hands off" doctrine for the Middle East as designed to force the West out of the area and leave the Soviet Union free to stir up more trouble.

They branded the six-point plan of Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov as a thinly disguised effort to counter the Eisenhower Doctrine by driving a wedge between the West and Middle East nations.

The first reaction in Congress was that Shepilov's proposal was "just the usual kind of propaganda that emanates from Moscow."

Offers to Quit Supplying Arms If Bases Closed

Note by Shepilov Appears Answer to Eisenhower Doctrine

BULLETIN

THOMASVILLE, Ga., (AP) — The White House called Russia's "hands off" proposal for the Middle East today an effort to "discredit" the Eisenhower Doctrine.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Russia has offered to quit supplying arms to the Arabs if the Western Big Three will close down their Middle East bases, Moscow dispatches said today.

The dispatches quoted informed sources as saying the proposals were contained in notes given U. S., British and French ambassadors in Moscow Monday by Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri T. Shepilov.

The notes called for a Big Four declaration of "hands off" Middle East affairs, the sources said. They appeared to be a rebuttal to the Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East.

The disclosure came as Western diplomats at U. N. headquarters cautiously predicted that Israel will withdraw its troops from Egypt as a result of U. S. support of its claim to free navigation in the Gulf of Aqaba.

Non-Interference Policy

According to the Moscow dispatch, the Soviet Union called on Britain, France and the United States to join with Russia in a policy of non-interference, mutual economic aid, a promise to maintain peace and agreement not to organize military blocs in the Middle East or supply Mideast countries with arms.

However, these were coupled with a proposal for the Big Four to liquidate military bases and withdraw troops from the Mideast. Russia does not have any known bases or troops in the Middle East while the United States and Britain have several strategic bases.

Just what effect the Soviet notes will have on the current efforts to get Israel out of Egypt was not immediately evident. Diplomats said they appeared aimed more at the long range problem of the Middle East rather than the immediate stumbling blocks.

The United States disclosed in Washington Monday it had told Israel it will declare publicly it considers the gulf open to shipping of all nations if Israel withdraws from Egypt. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles gave the assurance to Israeli Ambassador Abba S. Eban.

Will Send Ships To satisfy Israeli fears that Egypt would launch commando raids from Gaza if Israeli troops left the strip, the United States will support a move to send the U. N. emergency force into Gaza. A dispatch from Jerusalem last week said that Israel would withdraw if it got such assurances from the United States. The United Nations has refused to give such assurances in advance of withdrawal.

The General Assembly is expected to meet Wednesday or Thursday to take up Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld's look - before - you - leap report. It advised the world parliament to be certain it understood the consequences of voting sanctions against Israel.

UP Editors Praise Hearings By Budget Group

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (UP) — The United Press Newspapers Editors Assn. has commended the Illinois Budgetary Commission for opening its meeting to the press.

The editors also elected Robert Greenaway of the Daily Chronicle, DeKalb, as president, and named Homer Murray of the Mount Carmel Register - Republican and Charles Morrow of the Galesburg Register-Mail as vice presidents.

The UP editors, meeting here Monday, adopted a resolution praising the state budgetary commission for its open-door policy.

The resolution urged "that this recognition of the peoples' right to know be continued and respectfully petition that all meetings of the Illinois Budgetary Commission be held at its regular meeting place and that no closed sessions be held elsewhere."

Copies of the resolution were to be sent to Gov. William G. Stratton and budgetary commission members.

Russell Jones, United Press foreign correspondent who covered the Hungarian revolution until he was expelled by the Communists, addressed the meeting.

Jones told the meeting it was his personal opinion that the next uprising against Russian rule in the satellite nations likely would come in Poland.

He said the Poles were an "unrealistic, romantic people, the Irish of Middle Europe; they love to fight, love to fight Russians, and love to fight even when they know they can't win."

Dies Near Simpson

Charley Johnson, 63, died suddenly at the home of his son, Charles E. Johnson, east of Simpson, Monday. His body is at the Murrie funeral home at Vienna awaiting funeral plans.

Protests Pour In to Statement by DAR Chapter Chairman in Colorado

DENVER (AP)—Lincoln's birthday was observed today at the Colorado Industrial School for Boys, but without the usual Daughters of the American Revolution patriotic program.

That was cancelled by a "mutual" agreement between the school and the Denver chapter of the DAR as the result of a statement by the chairman of the program that she never allowed "Mexican" boys to carry the United States flag in the pageant.

Mrs. Charlotte Rush of Denver, the chairman, had been conducting the Lincoln Day program at the Golden, Colo., school for delinquent boys for 11 years.

Protests against Mrs. Rush's statements continued to pour into Denver Monday.

Gov. Steve McNichols proclaimed the DAR would not be permitted to sponsor further programs in Colorado state institutions "until this entire matter is cleared up."

Mrs. Rush "vacated" her post as chairman of the DAR patriotic program.

Mrs. James T. McDowell, regent of the Denver DAR, announced an apology Monday from Mrs. Rush. It said:

Stratton Studies Higher Tuition In State Schools

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Gov. William G. Stratton is considering asking that tuition fees for in-state students at the University of Illinois and other state colleges and universities be increased, an aide said today.

William W. Downey, administrative assistant to the governor, said the proposed tuition increases have been discussed by Stratton with legislative leaders, the Budgetary Commission and the Finance Department.

He said the tuition increases were "one of several things" Stratton has in mind as a means of avoiding a sales tax increase. Other proposals under consideration, he said, were raising of state licensing fees such as those for accountants and barbers.

It was reported that Stratton has suggested raising the in-state tuition fee at the U. of I. from the present $146 to possibly $200.

Downey, asked specifically about the U. of I., said the governor was considering the increase and that "the same thing" was under consideration for Southern Illinois University and state teachers colleges.

A tuition increase at the University of Illinois would have to be approved by the board of trustees. Tuition for non-resident students at the university was raised last year from $400 to $550 a year.

Five Re-Elected to Soil District Board at Meeting Held in Eldorado

Illustrated Lecture Presented By Dr. Ralph Hay

Paul Halbersleben of Harrisburg and Ewell Harris of Galatia were re-elected directors and Ernie Tate of Eldorado, Lowell Wise of Cottage and R. L. Morris of Raleigh were re-elected associate directors at the annual meeting of the Saline County Soil Conservation district last night, at which Dr. Ralph Hay of the University of Illinois was principal speaker.

Holdover directors are President A. A. Gholson of Rector, Carl Vance of Carrier Mills and Cecil Nelson of Independence township. Those re-elected had been nominated by a nominating committee consisting of Chairman Lowell Tison, Art Wintzer, C. J. Wagner, Lowell Bramlett and Ward Baker and their election was unanimous.

Gives Observations
Dr. Hay, who represented the University of Illinois at the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, West Bengal, India, where he helped organize a department of agriculture and served as consultant on soil conservation projects, gave an illustrated lecture on "Observations of Soil Conservation in India."

While Mrs. Hay showed colored slides, Dr. Hay explained them. Here were some of his observations: India grows more acres of rice than any other country; it also irrigates more land; it is a country one-half as large as the United States with twice as many people, mostly poor.

Winters are wonderful in Bengal, with minimum temperatures of 50 and maximums of 89. India today is made up of three countries — Pakistan, Burma and India. Fourteen or 15 major languages are spoken with many of the younger people speaking English.

There were scenes of the college where he was stationed, its teachers, its students, pictures of a 240-acre farm started from wasteland, of tall legumes that were plowed under, of terrace walls, of rice grown in nursery beds and transplanted, of crude farm implements used by the Indians, of reforestation of denuded lands.

Essay Winners Introduced
The meeting opened with group singing led by Dr. W. F. Johnson of Eldorado and the welcome to Eldorado by B. E. Skelton. Both are officials of the Burnett bank, which sponsored the annual meeting, held at the Methodist Educational building and attended by more than 200.

Response was made by Mr. Gholson, after which Mr. Halbersleben read the minutes of the last annual meeting and the annual report. Entertainment was by a musical group from Eldorado Township high school.

C. R. Gardner, county superintendent of schools, introduced Hilda Davis of Eldorado, grand prize essay winner; Eva Lee Hopkins, Eldorado high school winner; Ralph Gann, Galatia high school winner; Robert Mitchell, Carrier Mills high school winner; and Mike Blue of South Williford school, the grade school poster winner. Duane Lovellette, Harrisburg high school winner, was not present.

Miss Davis read her prize-winning essay.

Paul Trovillion, of Brownfield, head of the Pope-Hardin Soil Conservation district, addressed the gathering before Dr. Hay's talk.

Lincoln—See Him Plain

By WALTER COYNE
Abraham Lincoln would be 148 years old today. It would take a big cake to hold all the candles. Abe wouldn't like the party because he wouldn't be able to recognize himself.

For many years, well-meaning but over-emotional writers on this great president spun a web of biographical sugar that all but obliterated the simple strength of the man. It became difficult indeed to arrive at an objective appraisal of Lincoln and his work.

Then, of course, there arose the happily short-lived cult of rebekers who strove with desperate blindness to slash away those fingers which lovingly contrived the plaster saint. They coined words like "Lincolnatry" and tried to reduce him to a subhuman level.

So one group was blind to Lincoln's human failings while the other concentrated on those alone, relegating his splendid accomplishments to the fairy-tale realm.

We think Lincoln wouldn't have liked one method or the other. He was the foe of artifice and the destroyer of vanity, but he knew the value of an emotional approach. Who could have listened to the wonderful Gettysburg Address and not have had his emotions deny for the moment the essential tragedy and waste of the war between the states?

Lincoln knew this tragedy. His face took on lines that told of his own suffering and of the anguish he felt for the suffering of others. His humanistic and, above all, human qualities made him feel it deeply.

So let's put extremes behind us and be inspired to follow Lincoln as he really was—as he hardened his muscles with work, nourished his mind by firelight, lost elections and won them, and generally did the best he could.

Today, deny him nothing that was his; give him nothing that wasn't his. That would be a fine birthday gift for Abraham Lincoln.

Nehru's Double Standard

Morality is all of a piece, or it is nothing. There cannot be one kind for Asia and Africa and another for Europe and America.

Prime Minister Nehru of India is always quick to point the finger of blame at the West when he believes it is thwarting the emergence of Asian-African peoples. He was not so swift in mustering indignation, however, when Russia trampled upon rebellious Hungary.

You cannot compromise the principles of freedom and independence by favoring them in one region and not in another.

By the same token, Nehru plainly weakens his whole case as a champion of peace and high political ideals when he declines to allow the United Nations to enter disputed Kashmir, the Indian state sought by both India and Pakistan.

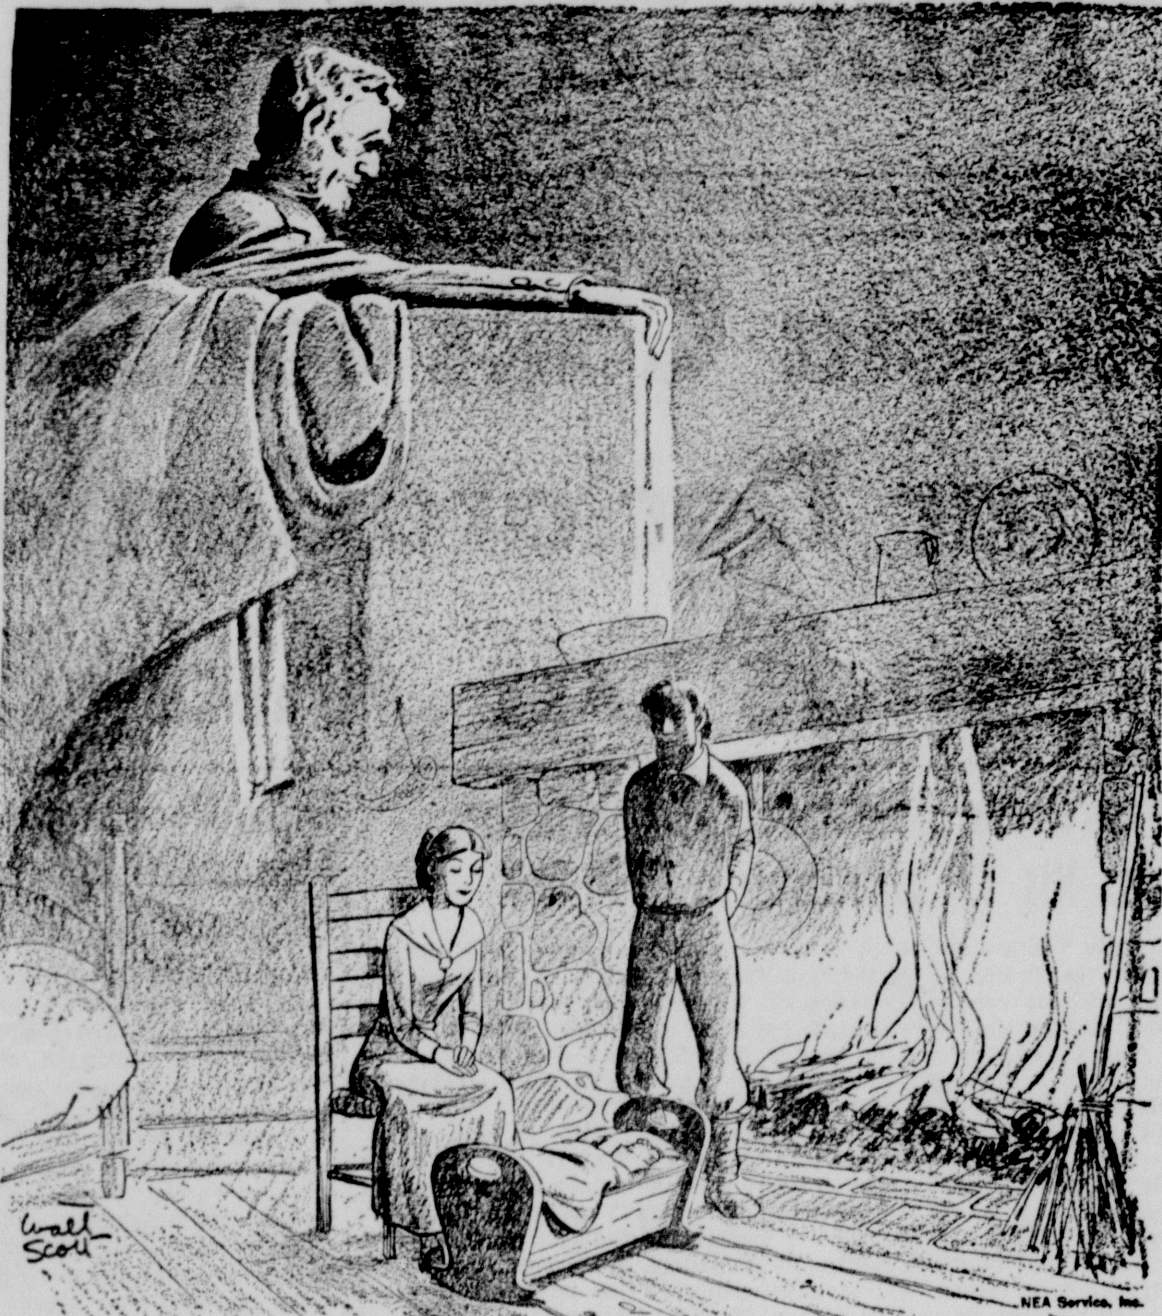

In similarly disputed territory the solution favored by international agencies is usually a nebulous giving the native population the chance to decide. So the U. N. has proposed in this case. But Nehru will not have it.

Within the Indian sub-continent he makes himself the judge of what is right. Beyond it, his concern for morality seems to vary with the distance from New Delhi.

The ascent made on Armistice Day, 1935, by Explorer II, is still the record for altitude for a manned balloon. Released near Rapid City, South Dakota, the helium-filled balloon rose 72,395 feet above sea level.

Forest Service To Fight Fires With Torpedoes

By GLENN STACKHOUSE
United Press Staff Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The U. S. Forest Service is cooking up a "secret weapon" for use in its eternal hot war with forest fires. It's going to "torpedo" them.

M. M. (Red) Nelson, chief of fire control for the California region, revealed today his outfit had taken delivery of seven surplus Navy TBM torpedo bombers to carry out the new and remarkably successful technique of water-chemical bombing from the air.

The Martin-built carrier bombers were ferried to California in recent few weeks from the Naval Air Station at Norfolk, Va. They are now being refitted for their new job in the peacetime war against the conflagrations that do millions of dollars damage to the nation's timber and rangelands each year.

The aerial tanker technique, pioneered by the Forest Service as far back as 1936, is now coming into its own as an effective weapon in forest fire-fighting, according to Nelson who is one of the nation's top authorities on the subject. "This is not a cure-all for the forest fire problem," he cautioned in an interview with United Press. "Just as the military, with its atomic bombs and guided missiles, still needs its infantry—we, also, will always need our ground troops."

"We are going to have big fires, even after this new technique is developed to its ultimate. But we won't have so many big fires, because the planes can hold down many which otherwise would run wild."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: State Department's Biggest Diplomatic Triumph Was Scored Through A 3-Year-Old Boy: King Saud Has Anti-Western Brother; Col. Nasser Won't Pay Penny For Clearing Suez.

WASHINGTON. — Diplomatic observers, looking over the entire calling list of Arab visitors here during the past two weeks, chalk up a plus mark for Mr. Dulles' efforts to woo the Near East.

Charles Malik, the Christian foreign minister of Lebanon Abdul Ilah, the pro-British crown prince of Iraq, and King Saud, the wavering, onetime friend of Colonel Nasser, all were part of an attempt to box in the Army colonel in Egypt whom Dulles once picked as America's best friend, but who turned out to be Russia's best friend.

Biggest diplomatic victory was scored by none of the above, but by little Prince Mashur, 3 1/2-year-old son of King Saud. The generous outpouring of gifts and good will to the little prince warmed the heart of his father more than all the regal receptions and state dinner parties given in his honor, elegant as these were.

The fact that the American people spontaneously contributed all sorts of presents and deluged the little boy with get-well messages, touched the king's heart and convinced him that the American people had no designs on his country. His staff purchased two extra trunks to carry the load of copybooks, miniature racing cars, and other knickknacks the American public sent to the hospital.

In addition to this, the king was delighted with the U. S. A. — ranging from his talks with Ike to Gali-Gali, the magician, who spoke in Arabic at the Arabian-American Oil Co. dinner given him at the Mayflower hotel, to the fact that John Foster Dulles gave him practically all of what he wanted from the United States.

THE KING'S BROTHER

Dulles' real problem, however, is going to be after King Saud returns home. The king's influ-tial brother, now acting as lord chamberlain in his absence, is intensely anti-western and pro Nasser. In addition, Nasser has managed to infiltrate the Saudi Arabian army with pro-Egyptian officers, thanks to the Egyptian military mission stationed in Saudi Arabia.

This is why Dulles' policy of sending more arms to Saudi Arabia is so risky. Chances are they will eventually fall into the hands of the pro-Nasser clique inside the Saudi Arabian army which has the support of the king's brother.

The king himself went home glowing with praise for the U. S. A. However, he is almost blind, reads only that which his advisers give him, and naturally is subject to all sorts of pressures. In the past, he advanced oil royalties to help Nasser buy arms from Russia, also advanced money to Nasser when the Egyptian budget was low, and just recently, while en route to Washington, stopped off in Cairo where he promised money to balance the Jordanian budget.

Today's the king's own budget is low, and he is asking more aid from the U. S. A. This puts Mr. Dulles in somewhat the position of siphoning money from American taxpayers, indirectly, to pay for Russian arms sent to Egypt.

FRIENDLY CROWN PRINCE

The crown prince of Iraq, who will some day rule his oil-rich nation, was completely friendly to the U. S. A. before he arrived. He and his government have been hoping that the United States would join the Baghdad Pact of which Britain is a member, together with Turkey and Pakistan.

The prince sounded one note of warning, however. He told President Eisenhower and John Foster Dulles that Iraq, which has already lined up with the west, expects and deserves better treatment than Saudi Arabia, which has openly backed Col. Nasser.

DIPLOMATIC PIPELINE

Col. Nasser has served notice on the United Nations that Egypt will not put up a single penny for clearing the Suez Canal. It was Nasser who ordered the bridges, barges, and derricks dumped into the canal, but he says the west will have to pay for clearing it if they want to use his waterway.

Result: Uncle Sam will probably pick up most of the $40 million tab. . . . King Saud tried to persuade Eisenhower that other Asian leaders, including Nasser, should be invited to the White House. He thought it important for them to receive personal assurances that the United States has no designs on the Near East.

King Saud ordered 60 air conditioned Cadillacs from Detroit. They will have special interiors, bulletproof glass, and some will have gun mounts. . . . British Defense Minister Duncan Sandys dropped hints at the Pentagon while visiting here that the British are thinking of pulling out of Cyprus and turning it over to NATO as a military base. If so the U. S. would probably have the problem of ironing out the Greek-Turkish-British imbroglio.

The Russians are reported sending about $10 million worth of arms to the tiny desert kingdom of Yemen to encourage attacks on the British protectorate of Aden. The Russians are pouring arms in so fast that the Yemen army already has three or four guns for each individual soldier. . . . Red China has snaked across a very important political trade deal with Ceylon, once a bastion of British defense. Ceylon will ship the Reds 50,000 tons of rubber at premium prices, while Red China will ship Ceylon 270,000 tons of rice at four cents a pound.

DEAL ON KEY ISLANDS

Secretary Dulles pulled some fast-talking backstage diplomacy before making public his demand that Israel withdraw from the Gulf of Aqaba.

Israel is holding the key islands once used by Egypt to blockade Israeli shipping, and Dulles is demanding that Israel give them back to Egypt.

However, Dulles made a secret deal with King Saud of Saudi Arabia while in Washington to guarantee that Egypt won't renew the blockade. The key island in the narrow Aqaba straits belongs to Saudi Arabia, not Egypt. King Saud had permitted Egypt to station troops on the island to block Israeli shipping, but Dulles got King Saud's promise that he will not allow Egypt to use the islands for continuing the blockade—if Israel withdraws.

News of this secret deal was passed to UN Secretary Dag Hammarskjöld. Hammarskjöld then held a secret conference with Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban and told him of King Saud's guarantee. He assured Eban that Egypt will permit freedom of navigation after the Israelis withdraw. Israel, however, is still understandably skeptical. It has seen too much cooperation between Egypt and Saudi Arabia in the past.

Eastern Strikes Halt

Centralia Car Work

CENTRALIA, Ill. (UP)—New car production at the Illinois Central Railroad car shops here has been stopped by eastern strikes.

Five hundred men were laid off at the car shops after supplies of liquid oxygen were cut off by the eastern strikes. The oxygen is used in cutting torches. An official said new car production was temporarily halted today.

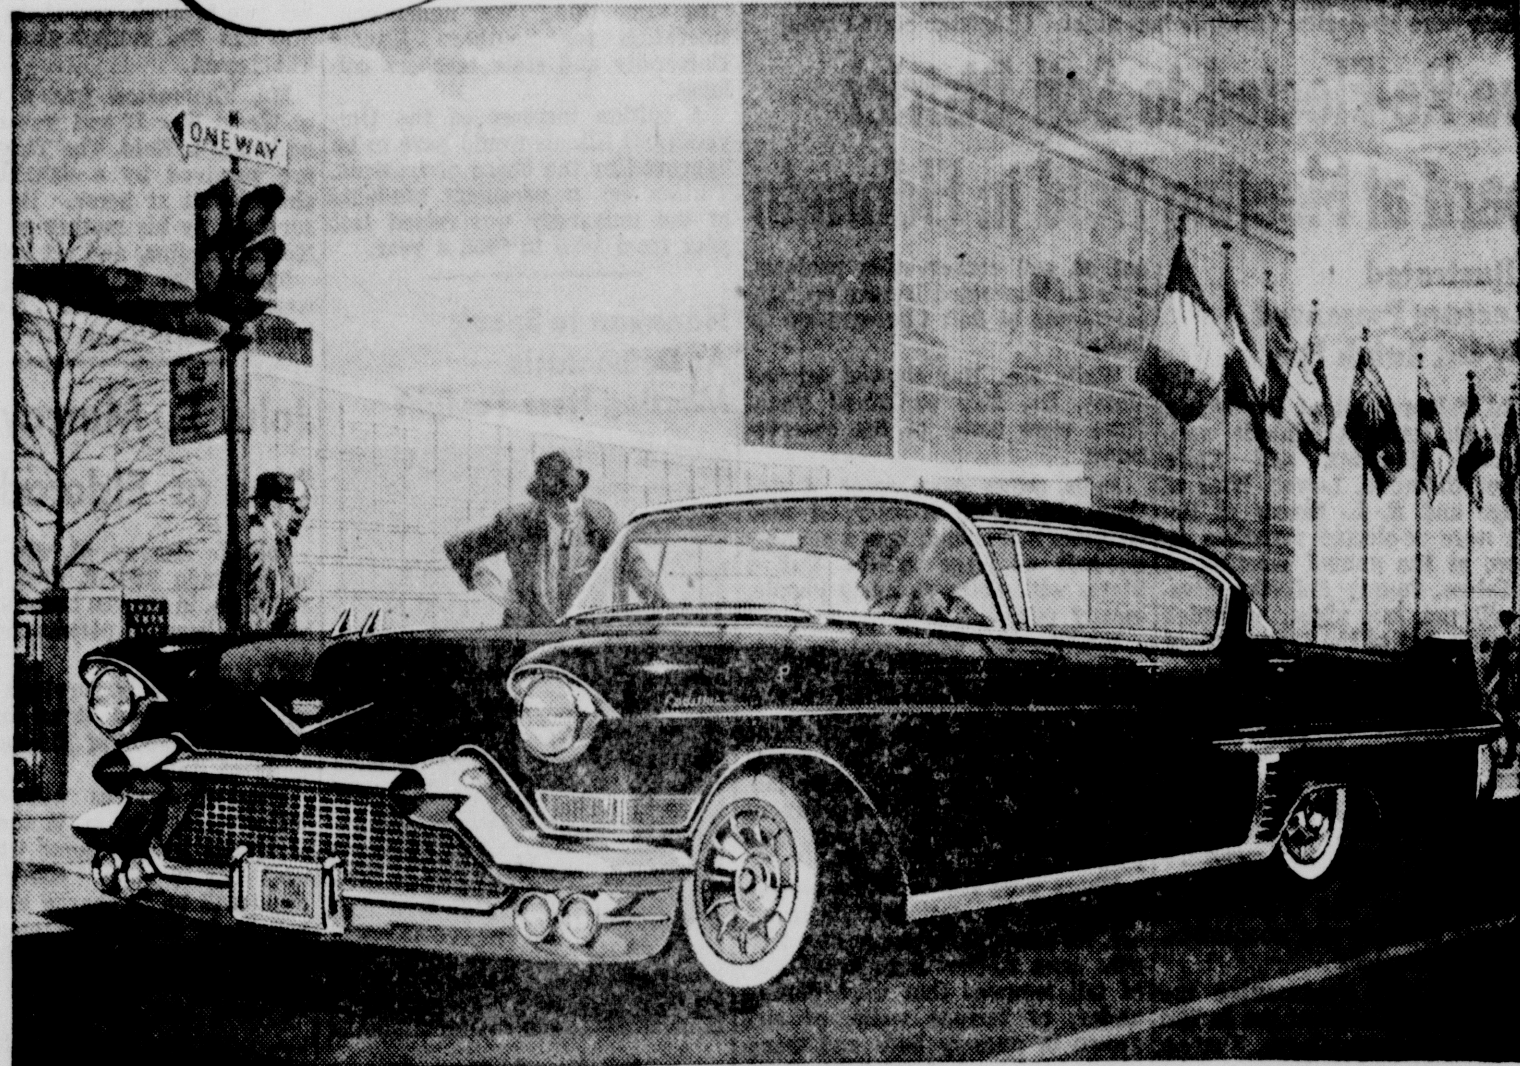

The spokesman said the layoffs are costing workers $8,800 a day in wages.

Cadillac

International Synonym for "Achievement"!

Mention the name "Cadillac" wherever you will—and in whatever part of the civilized world you might be—and you will find a common meeting-ground of understanding.

It is, in brief, a world-wide synonym for personal achievement!

And this, we think, entirely logical. For over the years, the Cadillac car has played a vital role in the lives of so many of the leading citizens of every community where motor cars are seen.

Cadillac is, in fact, the almost predictable choice of those who choose without restriction.

This, of course, is not to say that a motorist need necessarily possess an abundance of this world's goods in order to enjoy the great and unduplicated satisfactions of Cadillac ownership.

Consider, for instance, the economy of buying a Cadillac. Several models are actually priced competitively with much smaller, lighter cars.

Consider the practical aspects of driving a Cadillac. The car is remarkably economical from a standpoint of both maintenance and operation.

And lastly, think of the wisdom of owning a Cadillac. Year after year, Cadillac returns a greater share of its owner's original investment than any other motor car in the land.

In other words, wisdom and practicality can lead you to the "car of cars" just as surely as prominence and prosperity.

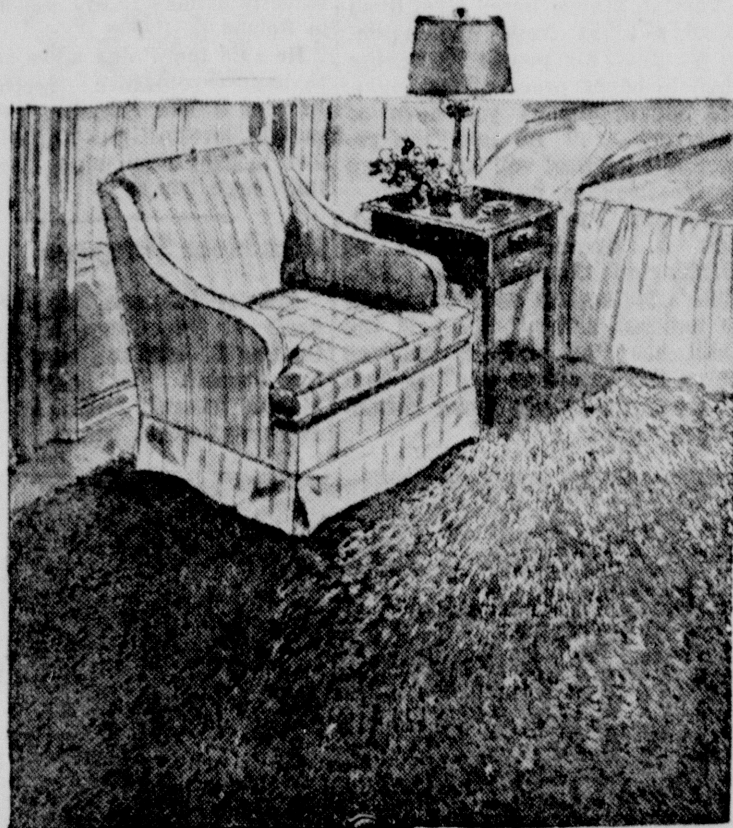

We suggest that you come in soon—that you spend an hour at the wheel—and that you delay no longer in making the magic move to Cadillac.

We'll be looking for you—soon.

Illinois Soldier Questioned in Fatal Shooting

TOKYO (AP) — U. S. Army and Japanese authorities today questioned an American soldier about the fatal shooting of a Japanese woman on a U. S. military firing range Jan. 30 in an incident that touched off a wave of anti-American feeling in the Japanese press.

The soldier was identified by the Army as Specialist 3 C. Willard S. Girard, 1002 West Norris Drive, Ottawa-La Salle, Ill. Until today the Army and the American embassy had refused to identify the soldier.

An Army spokesman said Girard, with his legal counsel, appeared before U. S. and Japanese officials for joint questioning on the incident and that no statement will be made until the investigation is completed.

Japan has urged that Girard be tried by a Japanese court for what Japanese newspapers called the deliberate shooting of the Japanese woman. Girard said he fired a warning shot because the woman was on the range and that she was killed accidentally.

Painting Bought For $1 by Woman Is Worth $10,000

CHICAGO (AP)—A Chicago woman's $1 purchase of a painting that reminded her of her childhood has turned into a $10,000 investment.

Miss Carolyn Alston bought the painting of four boys eating watermelon in a Baltimore, Md., curio shop in December, 1955. She said she paid $1 for it because the "scene reminded me of my childhood in North Carolina."

Miss Alston recently took the painting to an art gallery for cleaning and to have the frame refinished. There it was discovered the painting was the work of Winslow Homer, noted for his Negro studies and sea scenes, and was worth about $10,000.

The picture, painted on paper rather than canvas, will be auctioned here Feb. 20.

Ironically, Miss Alston discovered the bargain in a shop owned by her sister, Julie. She said neither of them had any idea of its value.

Quit Private Business, Gov't Agencies Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower Monday night ordered another step in the administration's drive to get the government out of competition with private industry.

At the direction of the President, Budget Director Percival Brundage requested all government departments and agencies to evaluate their commercial and industrial activities with a view toward dropping as many as possible.

Reports on the review, an expansion of a continuing administration study of the problem, are due by April 15. The Budget Bureau said a special time schedule will be set for the Defense Department.

Brundage said the new order is based on administration policy that "the federal government will not start or carry on any commercial-industrial activity to provide a service or product for its own use if such product or service can be procured from private enterprise through ordinary business channels."

"Exceptions to this policy," he said, "shall be made by the head of the agency only where it is clearly demonstrated in each case that it is not in the public interest to procure such product or service from private enterprise."

School of Missions Dinner Wednesday At Presbyterian Church

The second of the School of Missions dinners will be held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday, starting at 6 p. m. The family mission study and dinners, held each year at the Presbyterian church during the month of February, will be held each Wednesday evening this month.

The evening begins with a dinner at 6 p. m., followed by the study course, with classes for all age groups.

Theme of this year's lessons is "Our Mission to America."

During the historic Boston Tea Party of 1773, the tea dumped into the harbor was valued at nearly $90,000.

Attention Called to Size of Heart Disease Problem

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—With February designated as National Heart Month, Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director, called attention today to the magnitude of the heart disease problem in Illinois.

According to records of the state Department of Public Health, heart disease is responsible for about two out of every five deaths in this state. In 1955, heart disease took the lives of 41,365 Illinois residents, more fatalities than were due to the next five highest causes of death combined.

"Much of the mortality from heart disease may be attributed to the fact that our people are living longer," Dr. Cross said. "Of the 41,365 deaths reported in Illinois in 1955, more than 65 per cent occurred among persons past 65 years of age. Another 25 per cent of the deaths from heart disease occurred among the age group 45 to 64."

To help control heart disease among middle-aged and older people, the state Department of Public Health gives financial support to three cardiovascular diagnostic clinics, located respectively at Herrin Hospital, Herrin; St. John's Hospital, Springfield; and Methodist Hospital, Peoria. During the past year 156 patients were referred by physicians to these clinics for diagnostic consultation.

Since much of the heart disease in children is the result of rheumatic fever, the department distributes penicillin for the prevention of recurrent attacks of this crippling disease. At the present time penicillin, or other prophylactic drug, is being provided for more than 2,600 Illinois children whose parents cannot afford the cost of this preventive.

REVIVAL AT BROUGHTON
Revival services will begin Monday, Feb. 18, at the Broughton Methodist church with the Rev.
John Henshaw and his wife evangelists. Services will begin each evening at 7 o'clock and there will be special singing each evening.
The public is invited to attend by the pastor, The Rev. Frank Proctor.

Young Mother Slashes 3 Sons, Self to Death

WOOD RIVER, Ill. (U.P.)—A young mother apparently slashed her three young sons to death and then killed herself by cutting her throat with a butcher knife, authorities said today.

The bodies of Mrs. Pricilla Robertson, 25, and her children, were found Monday night by Helen Andrews, 12-year-old sister of the dead woman.

Mrs. Robertson's husband, Robert, 30, was at work in nearby St.
Louis when the bodies were found.
Police said Mrs. Robertson was found lying in the bathroom of her two-story suburban home, with an eight-inch butcher knife lying beside her. Her throat had been cut twice, authorities said.

The children, police said, also were slashed at the throat. Mark, 6 1/2 months, was found lying face down in his crib. The other boys—David, 4, and Eric, 3—were lying across a bed in another room.

No suicide note was found by police who said they understood the woman also made no last minute "farewell calls." Police said it was reported Mrs. Robertson had been a mental patient at a nearby hospital recently.

The White House grounds in the center of Washington, D. C., are a haven for birds. President Theodore Roosevelt, an ardent birdwatcher, found and recorded nests of redheaded woodpeckers, red-starts, flickers, wood thrushes, catbirds, screech owls, and sparrow hawks.

'Business as Usual' for Abe Lincoln on His Birthdays

By DOUGLAS TIMBERLAKE
United Press Staff Correspondent
SPRINGFIELD (UP) — Americans everywhere observed Abraham Lincoln's 148th birthday anniversary today, but the Great Emancipator himself apparently paid little attention to his birthday.

Nowhere is the vast catalogue of material on Lincoln is there found mention of any special festivity connected with Feb. 12.

On his 48th birthday, just 100 years ago, Lincoln worked as usual, writing a 125-word note to James Steele and Charles Sumners partners in a Paris, Ill., law firm.

Lincoln at the time was suing the Illinois Central Railroad for a $5,000 fee for defending it in a tax case.

A week before this birthday, Lincoln and his wife, living then in Springfield, had entertained 300 guests on a rainy evening that kept away another 200 who had been invited.

Danced Until Late

On the night after his birthday, Lincoln and his wife attended a large party at the governor's mansion in Springfield, of which the Springfield Journal reported "Throughout the evening a fine brass and string band discoursed most delicious music, and the dancers kept the cotillions filled until a late hour."

But on his birthday itself, Lincoln conducted "business as usual."

On his first birthday as president, Feb. 12, 1861, Lincoln and his family were in Cincinnati, Ohio, en route to Washington and his inauguration.

The day started with breakfast at Indianapolis, with Indiana Gov. Morton Oliver Percy. From there, the Lincoln family traveled by train to Cincinnati where Lincoln made a speech to a large audience and attended a public reception.

The Civil War and the duties of the presidency kept Lincoln busy on subsequent birthdays.

Letters on Birthday

On his last birthday, only two months before his assassination, Lincoln wrote letters of safe passage for two women.

One was for Mrs. Willis F. Jones, who had asked permission to visit the grave of her Confederate soldier husband. "Allow Mrs. Willis F. Jones to pass our lines with ordinary baggage, go south and return," Lincoln wrote.

Also on that last birthday, with Lee's surrender at Appomattox only 56 days in the future, Lincoln wrote to Union Gen. Joseph Hooker to commute a Confederate officer's death sentence for spying.

His note said: "Is it Lt. Samuel B. Davis whose death sentence is commuted? If not done, let it be done."

Lincoln also endorsed and forwarded a letter of application to West Point for Daniel M. Taylor. In his endorsement he complimented Taylor on the "good letters."

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

59th DISTRICT

By Representative
GORDON E. KERR

With the second month of the session in high gear we have the touchy issue of deficiency appropriations. Among the three most controversial were the Illinois public aid, the Auditor's and the State House Commission.

The Public Aid Commission asked and received $30 million. Many questions were asked why such a large deficiency during prosperous times and no increase in employee salaries.

In the Auditor's deficiency the answer is the former Auditor Orville Hodge. This money is for the purpose of operating the office until July 1.

The completion of a new lounge for the members of the legislators touched off the most excitement of the week. The Commission was severely criticized by some Chicago papers. The lounge is reserved for the legislators so that they may have a place to take people from their home district and talk to them without interference. Also the members will be able to have a place to sit down and eat.

A large amount of money has been spent on the Statehouse in an attempt to restore it to its original form and to make it a Statehouse that is comparable to other large states.

Bills of interest to this area:
H.R. 21—Creates a house commission to investigate electricity rates in the southern third of the state.

H.J.R.—Amends the state constitution to permit 18 year olds to vote.

H.B. 41—Raises county jurors mileage from 5 cents to 10 cents a mile.

Another House bill makes parents of minors liable up to $300 for malicious property damage by their children.

H.B. 57 and 58 introduced by this writer increases the hunting and fishing license $1.00. This money will be earmarked for the improvement and addition of lakes and hunting grounds, also to promote wildlife. This program has the support of many sportsmen clubs.

H.B. 69 sets up a minimum wage scale of 75 cents. The bill carries some exemptions.

H.B. 78-79 provides over-the-counter sales of license plates by county clerks. Requires a paid tax receipt before issuance of license.

Bills have been introduced to repeal the new splash guard act of the last session.

The bill to remove the lien against the homestead of any person on old age assistance has again been introduced.

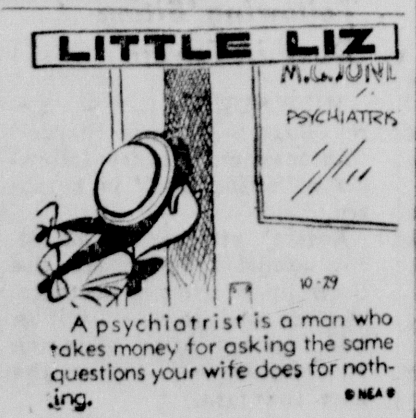

The writer of this report has introduced a bill that will give any citizen of Illinois a lifetime fishing or hunting license for 50 cents at the age of 65.

Korean Bonus

The Korean Bonus Commission will soon have a bill ready for introduction. Although the final terms are not completed it is believed that it will meet with the approval of the governor.

Your three House members were appointed to important committee assignments from Speaker Wood. The assignments are of the type that will help the district. Two chairmanships were assigned to this district. Probably for the first time in Illinois the same chairman of the Senate and House Committee on Veterans and Military Affairs were placed in the same district—Senator Jones in the Senate, Kerr in the House.

Last Wednesday Senator Jones, Rep. Powell, Rep. McCormick and I spent one and a half hours with the Governor. In this conference your assembly members were able to do a great service for their district. The Governor came through, clearing the way for a large industry for the city of Metropolis. He also put his stamp of approval for the enlargement of one of our State Parks, providing a lake can be constructed on the addition. Improvements of old Shawneetown was also discussed. The Governor is showing much interest in this part of the state.

House Committee Prepares to Write New Gov't Corn Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Agriculture Committee prepared today to write a new government corn program in the face of Democratic demands that any new corn benefits be wrapped into an $800 million package for producers of 11 other crops.

Administration officials have warned that the corn acreage control program and the surplus reducing soil bank program will collapse in 24 "commercial" producing states unless Congress boosts the 1957 corn planting allotment.

But Rep. W. R. Poage (D-Tex), vice chairman of the House committee, said today there "probably will be no bill at all" unless midwestern Republicans are willing to vote other crops the benefits they want themselves.

Poage said committee Democrats were in "general agreement" on a bill he introduced Monday. The measure would offer $800 million in federal soil bank payments to growers of 12 crops.

The committee had tentatively scheduled an open hearing on the corn situation today. But the farm legislators were expected to go in to closed session soon after convening to begin writing a bill.

Poage's bill, which he said would give all major crops the aid sought for corn, would work this way:

—The 1947 corn allotment would be raised from 37.3 million acres to 43.3 million acres.

—Growers of corn, cotton, wheat, peanuts, rice and tobacco would be given a 15 per cent acreage bonus on top of their fixed allotments; in the case of corn, on top of 43.3 million acres.

—The "bonus" acreage could be put into the soil bank to earn government payments. No farmer would be eligible for price supports unless he planted within his allotment.

—A new soil bank acreage reserve would be created for grain sorghums, barley, rye, oats, soybeans and flaxseed. To be eligible, growers would have to reduce plantings 15 per cent below the average of the last three years. For further reductions, growers would be paid $15 an acre.

Administration Opposes It

Poage said the "bonus acreage" plan would put $500 million into farmers' pocketbooks this year and the new soil bank for grains would add another $300 million.

Administration farm officials are known to be opposed to Poage's plan. Agriculture Secretary Earl T. Benson has urged Congress to set swiftly on his own corn proposal because under the present farm law, farmers will lose price support and soil bank eligibility unless they comply with a 37.2 million acre allotment — far below normal plantings.

The legislature met in special joint session to hear an address by State Sen. Fred J. Smith, Negro Democrat from Chicago.

Lincoln's home was in Springfield, his children were born here, and he practiced law and served in the legislature here.

The President, his wife and three of his children are buried here. Earlier this week other veterans organizations, including the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Jewish War Veterans, the Marine Corps League and the Spanish War Veterans, observed the anniversary in ceremonies at the tomb.

Sen. Knowland Urges UN to Restrict Use Of Veto by Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said Monday night that the United Nations should restrict Russia's use of the veto even if the Soviets walk out of the world organization.

In a major speech at Georgetown University, the California senator, now a U. N. delegate, noted that Russia has resorted to a veto 79 times in the United Nations, while France has used it only 4 times, Great Britain twice, China once and the United States none.

Best prices were attained by the end of the first hour. Thereafter some new selling developed and by noon half the early advance had been wiped out with some issues registering losses.

NEW YORK (AP)—Stocks attempted a rally today after breaking to new lows for 1954-57 in the previous session.

Best prices were attained by the end of the first hour. Thereafter some new selling developed and by noon half the early advance had been wiped out with some issues registering losses.

Noon Dow-Jones averages: Industrials 489.00, up 0.56 against a rise of 1.11 at 11 a. m. and rails 140.61, up 0.78 net out off 0.41 from the high. Utilities, unchanged at 11 a. m. showed a loss of 0.15 at 7:10.

Sen. Langer Critically Ill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. William Langer (R-ND) today lay critically ill of pneumonia and pleurisy at Bethesda Naval Hospital.

The colorful 70-year-old senator has been in the hospital since Feb. 4, his office disclosed Monday night.

The statement said Langer has been in an oxygen tent and has had three blood transfusions.

It quoted Dr. Bruce Canaga, head of internal medicine at the hospital, as describing Langer as "critically ill." However, Canaga also said Langer "is showing some improvement."

The body is lying in state at the Turner funeral home.

Mrs. Ed Baldwin Dies at Eldorado

Mrs. Blanch Baldwin, 74, 905 High street, Eldorado, died at the Ferrell hospital at 7:30 this morning following a long illness.

She also is survived by a sister, Florence Clipner, Murphysboro, 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

She was a member of the Social Brethren church of Wasson.

The body will lie in state at the Martin funeral home. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Floor Caves In Under the Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The floor under the stock market caved in and the experts predicted today that prices would erode further before support developed.

That so-called floor was the 460 level in the Dow-Jones industrial average. Last year, the stock market made its low on Jan. 23 at 459.21 in the average and then rose to its record high at 521.05 on April 6.

A series of declines for the remainder of the year brought the average to within touching distance of that low level and each time there was a swift rebound. The market touched 463.89 on Feb. 14; 463.85 on May 28; 463.83 on Oct. 1; and 460.41 on Nov. 29.

This floor was considered almost a part of the market. But Monday when the list started down selling increased at the floor instead of support.

When that happened the traders dumped stocks and the market touched a low at 456.01 and closed at 457.44, a loss for the day of 8.55 points, widest break since the "senior drop" of October, 1955, when it fell 13.27 points on Oct. 10.

Immediately word went around Wall Street: "The bull market is dead."

Some market men said the bull died last Aug. 2 when the industrials touched 520.95 within 10 cents of the April 6 top. Some said he died Monday.

Mt. Vernon Legion Appeals Revocation Of Liquor License

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Le Roy Simmons American Legion Post 952 at Mount Vernon had its appeal from license revocation taken under advisement Monday by the Illinois Liquor Control Commission.

The Legion club's license was revoked after Mount Vernon Mayor O. R. Buford charged the post was serving liquor to non-members.

The club license authorized sale of liquor to members of the organization, but another type of license is required to sell to the general public.

Morton Dorothy, attorney for the Legion post, said the mayor's charges did not cite specific cases and that the 3-day waiting period required before notification of pending revocation and a local hearing on the revocation was not observed.

Rehabilitation Fund Set Up for Two Herrin Explosion Survivors

HERRIN, Ill. (AP)—A $2,500 "rehabilitation and education" fund has been set up for two young survivors of the propane gas explosion here last Oct. 18.

Kiwanis clubs of the Illinois Eastern Iowa district contributed to the fund for 10-month-old Randy Williams and Susan Jarvis, 7. Susan is still hospitalized from burns suffered in the blast.

Jack Thompson Funeral Wednesday

Funeral services for Jack Thompson, 77, of the Leford community who died Monday morning, will be conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Salem Baptist church north of Carrier Mills.

Rev. Leo Simmons of Clarksburg, a former pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Joe Everts. Burial will be in Salem cemetery.

The body will lie in state at the Thompson funeral home at Carrier Mills until the funeral hour.

Charged with Mayhem Following 'Biting Duel' in Tavern

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Le Roy Rogers, 24, was charged with mayhem Monday following a "biting duel" in a tavern.

Rogers' attorney said his client admitted biting off the lower lip of Horace Boatman, 24, but said Rogers did it in self defense after Boatman bit him three times on the nose and face.

Safety Council Condemns Drag Racing

CHICAGO (AP)—Drag racing was condemned today by the National Safety Council which urged "hot rodders" to seek other activities for their "energy and enthusiasm."

The council reached its decision after a questionnaire poll of more than 1,500 city and state traffic officials, school authorities and local safety councils.

Many "hot rod" clubs were engaged in worthwhile activities promoting traffic safety and good citizenship, the council said. But it added that poll also revealed that more than 80 per cent of the clubs were primarily interested in racing.

British Press Demands Buckingham Palace Overhaul Public Relations

LONDON (AP)—The British press demanded today that Buckingham Palace overhaul its public relations setup and said official silence was partly to blame for the spreading reports of a "rift" in the royal family.

The palace issued a three word denial Friday of the reports which first appeared in an American newspaper. But since then there has been silence that some papers thought only fanned the reports out of proportion.

The tabloid Daily Mirror said it was not enough for the "people upstairs" to issue a curt denial.

"When rumor nibbles at the throne they must not look down their noses and hope it will go away again," the Mirror said.

"They must get up off their plush seats and get cracking."

Monday night the duke of Edinburgh sent a touching message to the wife of an American general in an unspoken but heartfelt indication of his own sadness after four months away from Queen Elizabeth and their two children.

But it was in no sense an official statement. It was a message of congratulations to Gen. Lauris Norstad, the new supreme commander of NATO, and was dispatched from Gibraltar where the duke is killing time until Saturday's reunion in Portugal with the Queen.

"May I... offer my respects to Mrs. Norstad and thank her for allowing her husband to go on serving the North Atlantic Treaty powers such a long way from home and family," his message said.

"I wish them both every success," he said.

The duke has been in frequent telephone contact with the Queen and may have discussed the rift reports.

Elderly Woman Living In Parsonage Helps Capture Escaped Convict

KINGMAN, Ariz. (AP)—An elderly woman living in an Episcopal parsonage received credit today for the surrender of a fugitive from Leavenworth who kidnapped and attacked a teen-age girl and fought a gun battle in the city streets.

The fugitive, Charles E. Turner, took refuge in the parsonage Monday night after abandoning Joyce Hitchcock, 17, of Helena, Mont.

Joyce said in a signed statement that Turner abducted her Thursday night when she was parking her car in the lot of a club at Helena. She said Turner, 34, criminally assaulted her during a trail of crime through three states. An employee at the agricultural inspection station near Kingman alerted police to watch for an automobile driven by a man who acted suspiciously.

Officer Stephen Smith, dispatched to investigate the report, met Turner's car at an intersection and attempted to stop it. Turner began firing at Smith with a .38 caliber pistol and the policeman chased him in a blazing gun duel.

The fugitive's car stopped and Turner ran through a residential district, darting into the parsonage in which Louise Freeland has lived since the death of her brother, the rector of the church.

When police surrounded the parsonage, Miss Freeland brought Turner to the door and ordered him to throw out his gun. Then she took him to the police. Turner pleaded, "Don't shoot me," police said.

Turner admitted he escaped Fort Leavenworth Prison June 4, 1956, but police said they were not able to verify immediately Turner's boast to the girl he had been imprisoned for killing two men.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

Jay Bynum of the HTHS faculty took honors in last week's "You Pick 'em" with a 9-1 record. Jay's only miss was in selecting Mt. Vernon to win from West Frankfort.

And on the game of the week Mr. Bynum was real close, predicting a 68-63 Carmi win over Centralia and the actual score was 58-56.

There were four contestants tied for second place with 8-2 records: Sandra Marlin, 15 West Logan, missed two by taking Cave-in-Rock over Brookport and Eldorado over Benton; Harold Fitts of Carrier Mills picked Mt. Vernon over West Frankfort and Eldorado over Benton and so did "Slick" Thompson of Harrisburg; Charles Nelson of Harrisburg slipped up by predicting Cave to beat Brookport and Centralia to win over Carmi.

Several others had 7-3 records. At the bottom of the list was a 4-6 record.

In case you have forgotten the scores of the ten games listed: Carrier Mills 91, McLeansboro 51; Pope County 70, Shawneetown 63; West Frankfort 69, Mt. Vernon 52; Ridgway 74, Equality 56; Brookport 54, Cave-in-Rock 50; Carmi 57, Eldorado 47; Mt. Vernon 82, Marion 46; Harrisburg 64, McLeansboro 53; Benton 81, Eldorado 52 and Carmi 58, Centralia 56.

This week's "You Pick 'em": Harrisburg at Benton; Norris City at Carrier Mills; West Frankfort at Marion; Eldorado at McLeansboro; Salem at Mt. Carmel; Carbondale at W. Frankfort; Murphysboro at Marion; Salem at Mt. Vernon; Decatur at Pinckneyville; Harrisburg at Eldorado (game of the week).

The basketball season is rapidly running out so if you plan to play "You Pick 'em" better get started. Only a few more weeks.

Could it be that "lightnin'" will strike two years in a row at West Frankfort and fire the Red Birds to a rousing finish.

Last season the Red Birds were having troubles and as the season neared the end Coach George Lubelt "relieved" big Paul Peeler of his center position. That looked at the time to be the killing blow. But the team rallied and advanced to the quarter finals of the state tourney.

This season the Birds were doing alright, but not nearly as well as most fans figured.

Then Francis Florian, junior three-year veteran and Avery, another regular, went out of action with sickness and injury.

Florian, a terror on both offense and defense, was still out of the lineup last week and the Red Birds enjoyed a terrific time, winning over the Mt. Vernon Rams on Friday and upsetting the high riding Herrin Tigers on Saturday.

For two successive years Coach Lubelt has seen his teams play great ball with regulars missing. Only difference is that Peeler was asked to quit in 1956. Am sure that Lubelt will welcome Florian back to the fold.

"Ought to slit one of his fingers before every game I guess," said Coach Bob Dallas of Ridgway Saturday morning in discussing the topnotch game played by his big center Roger Suttner the previous night.

Dallas said Suttner cut his left thumb almost to the bone Friday while playing with a knife and the thumb was heavily bandaged and sacked before game time.

Dallas, naturally was worried as it was the left hand that was hurt and Suttner is a southpaw. But he had a terrific night, scoring 43 points, blocking numerous shots attempted by the opposition and picking off about 30 or more rebounds.

Bob Evans, editor-manager of The Times-Leader at McLeansboro, offers this nickname for Ridgway's high scoring center — "Suttner the Stuffer."

ENOUGH OF THIS TALKING

Indiana Defeats Minnesota, 91-72, to Hold First Place; Illinois Wins, 104 to 97

CHICAGO — Indiana's hot Hoosiers were out in front by a half-game today in the Big Ten's biggest free-for-all basketball race in 30 years.

The Hoosiers, who forged to the front in a wave of Saturday night upsets, fattened their edge to a half-game over idle Ohio State Monday night with a 91-72 victory over Minnesota.

The victory was the fifth in seven games for Indiana, compared to a 6-3 mark for the Buckeyes, still reeling from three, straight conference setbacks.

Both the Hoosiers and the Buckeyes had plenty of cause for worry, however. Even Iowa, three places from the bottom with a 3-4 mark, was only 2 1-2 games off the pace.

Illinois, Michigan State Close

More serious threats were posed by Illinois and Michigan State, each with 5-3 records and only one game out. Purdue, a 68-66 loser Monday night to the conference's defensive specialists from Michigan State, was right behind with five wins and four losses.

Wisconsin's lowly Badgers came through to furnish the only upset on Monday night's round of conference tilts when they defeated Michigan, 70-65. It was the first conference success in seven tries and avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of the Wolverines.

Illinois scored a shaky 104-97 win over Northwestern and sewed it up only when the Wildcats' sophomore center, Joe Ruklick, fouled out with 33 points after sinking 31 in the first half.

Dees Scores 29 Points

The lead changed hands 16 times in the first half and the score was tied six times before Johnny Paul sank a long shot that gave the Illini a 57-56 edge at the intermission. Illinois forward Harv Schmidt bagged 34 points, tops for the contest and good enough to move him from eighth-ranking scorer to number four.

Archie Dees safeguarded his role as the league's top sharpshooter with 29 points in Indiana's victory over the Gophers. Dick Neal helped with 24. Dave Tucker and Roger Johnson netted 14 points for the Gophers while their scoring ace George Kline was restricted to a mere 8.

The Spartans hung up their fifth straight conference victory over Purdue with a rally that pulled them from a 10-point disadvantage. The Boilermakers moved in front at the intermission, 39-34, and held the edge until the final six minutes when the Spartans dropped in 16 points to 5 by the Boilermakers.

The point-maker for the Spartans was Larry Hedden with 17 points. Lamar Lundy paced the Purdue attack with 19.
